“... do not lose sight of the path”

A few years ago, I was climbing a mountain in southern Argentina with a group of military friends. Part of the climb was very difficult and it was also very easy to get lost. The first thing the commanding officer said was: "Father, do not lose sight of the path and do not separate from the group because it is very dangerous."

We started the climbing during the daylight and it was difficult, but it became more complicated when the darkness of the night slowed down our progress. The next day everything was wonderful, up there we had a wonderful sight.

If we want to live Christmas as God commands us, and if we want to receive the blessings that God has prepared for us this Christmas, we have to stay together on the path that leads to Bethlehem, we have to walk the path that leads to the cave where we will be waiting for the Holy Family.

The path that leads us to Bethlehem is the path of faith, of hope, of works of charity, it is the path of God.

If you do not want to suffer an accident, if you do not want to lose the meaning of life, do not lose sight of the road that takes us to Bethlehem.

Haz tus propósitos para este adviento y ven feliz a la Navidad. Dios te bendiga:
