Brothers and sisters: I invite you to pray for the servants of society who, with their courage and dedication, watch over our safety and well-being.

PRAYER TO THE ARCHANGEL SAN MIGUEL FOR THE MEN AND WOMEN OF COMBAT

Our God protects our men and women of arms and all those who risk their lives to ensure our safety. Archangel protector, you who are the symbol of divine justice and the celestial warrior, I invoke you on this day to ask you to protect our soldiers, policemen, firefighters, rescuers and soldiers.

You who are the chief of the armies of heaven and who have power over the armies of the earth, I beg you to enlighten and fill their superiors with your wisdom so that they radiate justice and peace at all times.

Archangel Michael, I ask that, in the presence of the enemy, you fill them with strength and wisdom to always act correctly and in a timely manner.

Give them courage on lonely nights and in moments of anguish.
Give them peace in times of fear and uncertainty.

Give them courage, when they need it to act for the good and protection of each person.
You who are the enemy of satan, I ask you to keep them away from temptations and bad decisions.

And keep away all the people who want to harm them or who have bad intentions with them.

Saint Michael the Archangel, help them to be strong in the face of defeat, and humble to rise up stronger.
Protect them so that their physical, mental or moral integrity is never affected.

Warrior Archangel, I ask you to fill them with encouragement and serenity at all times, to endure and overcome all the ups and downs that arise in their lives.

Give them a strong heart, mind, and body, so that they are always well prepared for whatever comes their way.
Help them to be victorious in battle serving their country with honor, humility and courage.

Prince of light, illuminate this and every day the paths that they have to travel in the performance of their duty.

He intercedes for them when they need the Father's forgiveness, and help them not to forget their duties as a Christian.

Oh! Archangel Michael, listen to my pleading voice from heaven and come to my request.

Our Lord, receive in your Kingdom those who have gone to the Father's house.

Saint Michael Archangel, from now on I will not fear, because I know that you are with them and before your presence their enemies will tremble.

Amen.
