Pastor’s Notes

Who are you?
If God will ask you: who are you? What would you answer?
If you want to see who you are, analyze how you respond and behave in difficulties, in difficult times and in the face of temptations.
In difficulties you will discover if you are a person of faith and love for God or you are not. In difficult times you will see if you really are as strong as you think. In moments of temptation you will discover if you are a slave to your passions or not.
You may be offered all the riches in the world, or have all power placed in your hands, or you will be pushed to renounce your faith. But, if you are a true Christian, you will know who your true wealth is, you will know that only God is and only He fills the heart.
Who are you? A slave or a Christian who fights every day to win heaven.
If difficulties or temptation appears in your life, think that you have chosen God, that you have chosen to follow Christ. Remember that God calls you to be free, to be with Him.
