Victory and Divine Mercy

The victory of the risen Christ is in his love, in his obedience and in his mercy, and in Christ is also our victory.

The one who loves like Christ, the one who obeys like Christ, the one who forgives like Christ has the victory assured.

He who does not love is a loser, he who does not obey is a loser, he who does not want to forgive is a loser. The egoist is a loser. The one embittered by hatred or rancor is a loser. The unhappy man who is in the dark for not wanting to forgive is a loser.

Today is the day of Divine Mercy, of the merciful Christ. In God's forgiveness lies his power. And when we learn to forgive, we overcome selfishness, we overcome evil and we triumph with Christ.

Christ tells St. Faustina: "The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to My mercy", (Diary of St. Faustina, #723). In other words: if you want Christ's forgiveness, learn to forgive. If you want to be a victor over hatred, learn to forgive, and Christ will give you his forgiveness and his peace.

Jesus's merciful heart invites you not to be afraid of his mercy. His infinite mercy never rejects a repentant heart, never rejects a heart wounded by pain.

Brothers and Sisters, there is no peace in the soul, much less in our society without Divine Mercy. Jesus himself said to St. Faustina: "Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to My Mercy". (Diary of St. Faustina, #299).

The image of the Merciful Christ is a gift from God. The Lord told St. Faustina: "The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls". These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross." (Diary of St. Faustina, #298-299).

The devotion to Divine Mercy in summation invites us to:

1. Pray for souls entrusting them to the Mercy of God. Let us pray for the conversion of souls. Why are there many lost souls, why so many children on the wrong path? Because we need to trust in Divine Mercy and to pray.
2. To tell the world, “Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.” (Diary of St. Faustina, #699.) The world needs the Mercy of God.
3. To Focus on and trust in the Mercy of God, and to deepen and live the Divine Mercy.

Christ offers us victory. What is the path you want to take? The victory of love, of mercy, of happiness, of joy? Or the defeat that is the path of selfishness?
