Why do you allow sadness?

Christ wants to be our companion on the way. He wants to be by our side throughout the journey of our life to support us in times of trial, to fill us with optimism in dark moments, to show us the path that leads us to God.

Christ walks with the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Christ knows how their hearts are troubled and that is why He accompanies them and educates them with his word.

Those disciples were fleeing from Jerusalem and Christ met them on the road. And you? Christ seeks you. Christ calls you, and even if you do not see him, Christ accompanies you.

The disciples said: "We hoped." They walked with a sad air; there is in the disciples an attitude of depression, superficiality, blindness, and fear of the cross. See how easy it is to get discouraged, how easy it is to fall into sadness, how easy it is to start doubting!

The temptations of discouragement, sadness, and of feeling abandoned can be very strong, but remember that you are never alone, that Christ is with you, that the Virgin Mary cares for you and that the Church is always by your side. Remember that we pray for you.

That is why we say to Christ like the disciples on the road to Emmaus: You, Lord, who have touched our hearts, "Stay with us." Always stay by our side.

May the risen Christ fill you with peace, strength, and blessings.

Dear Friends in Christ,

On April 29/30, 2023 our diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. This appeal supports dioceses in the United States that are most in need. This appeal funds a wide range of pastoral services, including evangelization, religious education, and the maintenance of mission parishes, the training of seminarians and lay ministers, and ministry with ethnic groups.

Home mission dioceses are found in every region across the United States and its territories. Often their small Catholic populations are distributed across a large geographical area and have few priests to serve them. The Diocese of Owensboro, in western Kentucky, fits that mold. With Catholics making up about 6% of the population in a mostly rural territory of 12,500 square miles, pastors often serve multiple parishes that are more than 25 miles apart. Like many regions, it has a large and growing Hispanic Catholic population with a need for liturgical, sacramental, and pastoral support.

With your support, Catholic Home Missions assists the Diocese of Owensboro’s Hispanic Ministry program to meet the needs of its growing Hispanic community. Its 31 bilingual priests celebrate more than 900 Masses in Spanish each year, along with Baptisms, weddings, and Confirmations in Spanish. Your support of the Catholic Home Missions Appeal provides home mission dioceses with the resources to welcome and minister to their growing multicultural populations.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the faith lives of our brothers and sisters right here in our Diocese and across United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions. Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Please be as generous as your abundance allows.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James R. Golka
Bishop of Colorado Springs
