The Immaculate Heart of Mary

This Saturday the 17th we celebrate the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Meditating on the value of a mother’s love and above all on what the Heart of Mary is like, I offer you a few simple reflections.

The protection zone: Children when they are under the gaze of their mother feel safe and protected. When children go to school for the first time during the first weeks they feel insecure and self-conscious for not having their mother’s close, for leaving that protection zone that their mother gives them.

We need to be within that zone of security that Mary Most Holy gives us, of that confidence that she sees us, cares for us, and guides us. When you leave that protection zone, you are in danger because you are beginning to act more for your selfishness.

We have the heart of Children: We have all been born of a mother who took care of us and carried us in her womb. We all had the need to be protected in our mother’s lap. At birth, one of the first things we did was to ask our mom to eat. When we grew up, our mom taught us to walk, to talk, to eat, she was definitely the first guide in our life.

The greatest thing is that from our mother we received the first truly deep and tender love, as she also gave us the first testimony of selfless dedication when we came into the world. For this reason, we carry in our hearts that natural love for our mother (although we often do not know how to express it). We grow up and pride and arrogance can stain the soul and close the heart by thinking that by the mere fact of growing up we stop being children, of needing the love and care of our mother. Christ is aware of this reality of children and he himself wanted to be born of a Mother, of the Most Holy Mary. If Jesus himself needed Mary, how much more do we need Mary.

True devotion and love for Mary leads us to know more deeply her heart and the heart of her Son Jesus Christ. What Mary wants most is for us to get closer to Christ, to know his heart, to fight for his Kingdom. Mary is the Mother of God and our Mother. I ask you to approach Mary with a humble and simple heart and repeat these beautiful words of Saint Bernard:

“Following her, thou strayest not; invoking her, thou despairest not; thinking of her, thou wanderest not; upheld by her, thou fallest not; shielded by her, thou fearest not;
Estimados hermano y hermanas:

Este sábado 17 celebramos el Inmaculado Corazón de María. Meditando sobre el valor del amor de una madre y sobre todo sobre cómo es el Corazón de María Santísima les ofrezco unas sencillas reflexiones:

La zona de protección: Los niños cuando están bajo la mirada de su madre se sienten seguros y protegidos. Cuando los niños van por primera vez a la escuela durante las primeras semanas se sienten inseguros y cohibidos por no tener cerca de su madre, por salirse de esa zona de protección que su madre les da.

Nosotros necesitamos estar dentro de esa zona de seguridad que nos da María Santísima, de esa confianza de que ella nos ve, nos cuida y guía. Cuando sales de esa zona de protección estas en peligro pues estás empezando a obrar más por tu egoísmo.

Tenemos un corazón de Hijos: Todos hemos nacido de una madre que nos cuidó y nos llevó en su seno. Todos tuvimos la necesidad de protegernos en el regazo de nuestra madre. Al nacer, una de las primeras cosas que hicimos fue pedirle de comer a mamá. Cuando crecimos mamá nos enseñó a caminar, a hablar, a comer, en definitiva fue la primera guía en nuestra vida.

Lo más grande es que de nuestra mamá recibimos el primer amor verdaderamente profundo y tierno, como también ella nos dio el primer testimonio de entrega desinteresada cuando venimos al mundo. Por ello, llevamos en nuestro corazón ese amor natural por nuestra madre (aunque tantas veces no lo sepamos expresar).

Crecemos y el orgullo y la soberbia pueden manchar el alma e ir cerrando el corazón pensando que por el sólo hecho de crecer dejamos de ser hijos, de necesitar el amor y cuidado de nuestra madre.

Cristo es consciente de esta realidad de hijos y el mismo quiso nacer de una Madre, de María Santísima. Si el mismo Jesús necesitó de María cuánto más nosotros necesitamos de María.

La verdadera devoción y amor a María nos lleva a conocer más profundamente el corazón de su Hijo Jesucristo. Lo que más quiere María es que nos acerquemos a Cristo, que conozcamos su corazón, que luchemos por su Reino.

María es la Madre de Dios y Madre nuestra. Te pido que con un corazón humilde y sencillo te acerques a María y repitas estas bellas palabras de San Bernardo:

“Siguiéndola, no os perderéis; suplicándole, no conoceréis la desesperación; pensando en ella, evitaréis todo error. Si ella os sostiene, no os desanimaréis; si os protege, no tendréis que temer nada; bajo su guía, no sabréis que es la fatiga; gracias a su favor, alcanzaréis la meta”.
Please pray for:
Judy Linneman, Maria Olemeda, Fred Schmitt, John DeHerra, Joyce Franchs, Cathy Adams, Marilyn Bridges, Posie Rivera, Elizabeth Dewey & Cordell Blair.

For the Repose of the Soul:
Michael Jarmillo, & Jose (Benjie) Mestas.
