"The Master is here, and is asking for you.” John 11:28
Notes from Deacon Pat DiLoreto

Since it’s my last weekend at St. Dominic, I think it appropriate to speak about the priesthood, so I will reflect upon the Gospel for the 19th Sunday in Ordinary time.

Thank God for the priesthood! Through His ministers He gives us the greatest gift imaginable; Himself in the appearance of bread and wine. The Gospel gives us a beautiful picture of how this works. Christ blesses the bread, He breaks it, and then He gives it to his Apostles to distribute to the crowd which has followed him out into the desert.

Prepare yourself for a brief explanation of Sacramental Theology. When we are at Mass, we see the person of the priest at the altar saying the words of consecration and taking the bread and wine in his hands but, he is not making the Eucharist become the Body of Christ. It is Christ acting through the person of the priest. Think of a pen in the hand of a writer. The pen is a useful tool by which the writer can write but the writer is the one who is writing.

This is how each of the Sacraments work. Christ is acting through the minister in each of them. We can now see how this applies to the Gospel passage. It’s a beautiful way in which Our Lord wishes for us to cooperate in salvation history. In order to do this, we need to have men willing to say ‘yes’ to the vocation of the priesthood.

We are blessed as a Diocese to have six men entering the seminary this year to discern whether God is calling them to the priesthood. This brings our total number of seminarians to 17 for the Diocese, the largest number our Diocese has ever had. We thank God for raising up these men to discern His will. We always need more men though.

A man who is discerning the priesthood should ask himself this question: “God, do you want me to go to seminary?” One year in seminary helps him to better understand himself in the light of the Lord and he comes to know His voice in his life with greater certainty than he had before. This will make him a better husband, if he discerns that marriage is his vocation, or start him on the path to either religious life or the diocesan priesthood.
